

10 years
fighting invasive species

Tahoe Keys Integrated Management Plan Update

Dennis Zabaglo
Aquatic Resources Program Manager
September 12, 2018

RESTORATION IN PROGRESS
LAKE TAHOE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

continuing the commitment

Managing Invasives

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Management Plan
- Eurasian watermilfoil
- Curlyleaf pondweed
- Control

Tahoe Keys

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Implementation Plan
- Tahoe Keys background
- Integrated Management Plan

Tahoe Keys

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Harvesting
- Pilot project application
- Additional analysis necessary

Environmental Analysis

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Joint Document-EIS/EIR
- Small scale and full scale project analysis
- Evaluate alternatives
- Multiple methodologies

Collaborative Approach

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Selection Process
- Stakeholder Assessment
- Process Design
- Timeline

Current Activities

10 years
fighting invasive species

- Increased skimming
- Back-up station
- Bubble curtain and Seabins

10 years
fighting invasive species

Thank You

RESTORATION IN PROGRESS
LAKE TAHOE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

continuing the commitment

